

Charles Schwab's Money Myths survey shows gender differences in personal finance

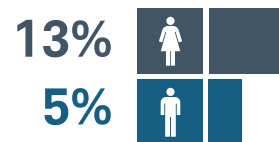

Fewer women than men consider themselves to be financially savvy.

Fewer women than men believe they'll have enough for a comfortable retirement.

More than twice as many women as men do not view themselves as the financial decision-maker in their household.

To learn more, visit www.schwab.com/book

Money Myths Survey, January 2014
Copyright 2014 Charles Schwab & Co. Inc., member SIPC